The winter weather just keeps coming with more snow, cold, wind, lake effect, etc. Hopefully we can get through this week without missing any class time.

Book order flyers for January were placed in lockers last week. Any orders are due by Thursday the 27th.

The Bears loved their slumber party last week. We played musical sleeping beds, stuffed animal toss, and cover up your heads! They also loved parading with their stuffed animals-on their heads, their belly, their knees and backs. They were so excited when their animal won a trophy!

This week our Special Event will be making STONE SOUP on Tuesday. They will chop veggies and place them in a big pot with a stone wrapped in foil on the bottom. We will have this soup for our snack with crackers and Italian bread! We will also listen to the story of Stone Soup.

SHOW AND TELL for January will be held Thursday the 30th. Children may bring in something special from home to show the class and tell them about it.

TUESDAY the Bears will begin by finding things that they can eat! Their number is "3" and the story is the Three Little Pigs. Our letter is "E" to trace. Everyone will cut and glue bricks on to three houses and color three pigs, three plants, three houses and three boats. We will have SHOW AND TELL!

SHOW AND TELL for December:

BEAU shared his cat story about Loki his cat jumping up and biting his pants and he went to the grocery store last night with his mom.

ELLIS shared his soccer player that he got from the mall and it is a Barbie doll.

CODI shared her Grinch that dances and sings the Grinch song. He is green!

AZLYNN shared pictures of her beautiful kitty. It's from her Mama and it's a little kitty!

KELLAN shared his reindeer that has sunglasses on!

ISABELLA shared her camera that takes pictures of her friends when they say CHEESE. She got it from her Great Grandma and they bought it at Hobby Lobby!

FEBRUARY CALENDARS will be in everyone's locker this week. I have also enclosed a class list for VALENTINES! Our Valentine Party will be held on Thursday, February 13th! Thank you all for your support. Cindy Reardon 315-232-2230
